2. Personal debt in the UK

Total UK personal debt

People in the UK owed £1.576 trillion at the end of January 2018. This is up from £1.52 trillion at the end of January 2017– an extra £1,077.51 per UK adult.

The average total debt per household – including mortgages – was £57,943 in January. The revised figure for December was £57,820.

Per adult in the UK that's an average debt of £30,455 in January – around 114% of average earnings. This is up from a revised £30,380 a month earlier.

Based on January 2018 trends, the UK's total interest repayments on personal debt over a 12 month period would have been £50,805 billion.

- That's an average of £139 million per day.
- This means that households in the UK would have paid an average of £1,868 in annual interest repayments. Per person that's £981 – 3.68% of average earnings.

According to the Office for Budget Responsibility's March 2018 forecast, household debt is predicted to reach £2.296 trillion in Q1 2022. This makes the average household debt £84,412 (assuming that the number of households in the UK remained the same between now and then).

Consumer credit debt

Outstanding consumer credit lending was £207.5 billion at the end of January 2018.

- This is up from £194.3 billion at the end of January 2017, and is an increase of £255.28 for every adult in the UK.

Per household, that's an average consumer credit debt of £7,629 in January, up from a revised £7,615 in December – and £485.85 extra per household over the year.

It also means the average consumer credit borrowing stood at £4,009 per UK adult. This is up from a revised £4,001 in December.

Total credit card debt in January 2018 was £70.35bn. Per household this is £2,586 – for a credit card bearing the average interest, it would take 26 years and 4 months to repay if you made only the minimum repayment each month.

- The minimum repayment in the first month would be £62 but reduces each month. If you paid £62 every month, the debt would be cleared in around 5 years and 4 months.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

Note: The Bank of England altered the treatment of some secured credit series in May 2015, so figures here might not be directly comparable to historical Money Statistics figures

Mortgage debt

Outstanding mortgage lending stood at £1.37 trillion at the end of January.

- This is up from £1.32 trillion a year earlier.

That means that the estimated average outstanding mortgage for the 11.1m households with mortgage debt was £123,292 in January.

The average mortgage interest rate was 2.53% at the end of January. Based on this, households with mortgages would pay an average of £3,119 in mortgage interest over the year.

For new loans, the average mortgage interest rate was 2%. Using the latest figures from UK Finance, this means new mortgages would attract an average of £3,312 in interest over the year.

According to UK Finance, gross mortgage lending in January totalled an estimated £21.9 billion.

- This is up 7.8% on December 2017, and an 9.7% increase from a year ago.

The Financial Conduct Authority reports that 60.84% of mortgage lending in Q4 2017 was for 75% or less of a property's value.

- 4% of lending was for mortgages for over 90% of a property's value.

There were 24,840 loans approved for house purchase in January 2018, according UK Finance, 5% lower than January 2017. The average loan approved for house purchase fell to £188,500, 2% less than the previous month.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

House prices

Nationwide estimate that house prices fell by 0.3% during February 2018, up 2.2% on 12 months ago.

Halifax said that average house prices fell by £522 in February 2018. This is actually an increase of 0.4% on last months fall; but prices fell by 0.7% over the quarter and rose by 1.8% over the year.

UK House Prices

Data from ONS

First-time buyers

The Office of National Statistics say that the average house price for first-time buyers was £190,722 in December 2017, which is an annual increase of 4.7% and is unchanged on last month.

According to UK Finance, the typical first-time buyer deposit in November was 17.1% (around £32,493) – 122% of an average salary.

The average first-time buyer borrowed 3.65 times their income and the average first-time buyer loan was an estimated £142,200.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

Renting

The median rent in England across all property types for the 12 months to September 2017 was £675, data from the Valuation Office Agency shows. In London this was £1,433.

For a single room, the average monthly rent was £377 – in London this was £600 (63% higher).

The average monthly rent for a two-bedroom house in England was £650 – in London this was £1,473 (127% higher).

According to the Office for National Statistics, private rental prices in Great Britain rose by 1.1% in the 12 months to January 2018, down from 1.2% the month before.

Rental prices increased in all the English regions over the year to January 2018, bar the North East which remained the same. The East Midlands saw the biggest increase (2.6%).

Figures from DCLG show that in 2016/17, private renter households spent an average of £850 a month on rental payments.

- These figures are the mean payments, so can be skewed by very high figures.

Inclusive of all benefits, private renters spent an average of 34% of their income on rental payments. Owner-occupiers spent on average 18%. Weekly rents in the social housing sector were £102 for housing association renters and £95 for local authority renters.

34% of households owned their home outright, while 28% were mortgagors. 20% rent privately, and 17% pay a social rent.

- 2012/13 was the first year ever that outright owners were the largest tenure group.
- The rate of private renting is the highest it has been since the 1960s.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

Arrears and repossessions

According to the Financial Conduct Authority, at the end of Q4 2017 there were 189,865 mortgage loan accounts with arrears of more than 1.5% of the current loan balance.

- This is a slight dip on the previous quarter.

57.64% of payments due for loans in arrears were received in Q4 2017.

UK Finance reports that 82,800 (0.91%) of mortgages had arrears equivalent to at least 2.5% of the outstanding mortgage balance in Q4, a small quarterly fall (from 83,300 in Q3). Since the end of Q4 2016, this figure has dropped by 16 a day.

UK Finances estimates that there were 1,700 properties were taken into possession in Q4.

This equates to 18 properties being repossessed every day, or one property being repossessed every one hour, 17 minutes.

Every day in Q4 2017, according to the MoJ, 47 mortgage possession claims were issued and 31 mortgage possession orders were made.

339 landlord possession claims were issued and 268 landlord possession orders were made every day.

4. Savings and pensions

Savings

In Q3 2017, households saved an average of 5.5% of their post-tax income, including benefits. This is down from 7.2% in Q3 2016.

The average interest rate for an instant access savings account – not including bonus interest payments – was 0.19% in January 2018. For a cash ISA, this was 0.94% - an increase of 0.58% on last month.

If someone on the average salary saved 5.5% of their income in an average instant access savings account for a year, they would receive £2.23 in interest after tax. If they saved it in an average cash ISA, they would receive £13.80.

It would take 25 years for someone on the average salary, saving the average amount per household every year in an average instant access savings account, to afford the average first-time buyer deposit. If they saved into a cash ISA at the same rate it would take 22 years.

Around 9.45m (35%) households have no savings, while a further 2.97m (11%) have under £1,500. 68% have less than £10,000 in savings.
