The MONEY Charity

Welcome to the December 2017 edition of The Money Statistics – The Money Charity’s monthly round-up of statistics about how we use money in the UK. These were previously published as the Debt Statistics, but we’ve now revamped and improved them to cover a wider range of information.

If you’ve any questions, comments, or want any information about the source of these statistics, please contact Luke Humphrey on Luke@themoneycharity.org.uk.

Throughout this document, statistics that are written in colour have been calculated by The Money Charity. All the other statistics come from external sources and are written in black.

You may use any of the statistics here, as long as:

- You don’t make any commercial or financial gain from their use; and
- You acknowledge us as the providers of the information.

2. Personal debt in the UK

Total UK personal debt

People in the UK owed £1.562 trillion at the end of October 2017. This is up from £1.504 trillion at the end of October 2016 – an extra £1,106.13 per UK adult.

The average total debt per household – including mortgages – was £57,432 in October. The revised figure for September was £57,278.

Per adult in the UK that's an average debt of £30,176 in October – around 113.7% of average earnings. This is slightly up from a revised £30,096 a month earlier.

Based on October 2017 trends, the UK's total interest repayments on personal debt over a 12 month period would have been £49.812 billion.

- That's an average of £136 million per day.
- This means that households in the UK would have paid an average of £1,831 in annual interest repayments. Per person that's £962 – 3.63% of average earnings.

According to the Office for Budget Responsibility's November 2017 forecast, household debt is predicted to reach £2.296 trillion in Q1 2022. This makes the average household debt £84,412 (assuming that the number of households in the UK remained the same between now and then).

Consumer credit debt

Outstanding consumer credit lending was £205.3 billion at the end of October 2017.

- This is up from £190.13 billion at the end of October 2016, and is an increase of £311.15 for every adult in the UK.

Per household, that's an average consumer credit debt of £7,549 in October, up from a revised £7,509 in September – and £592.57 extra per household over the year.

It also means the average consumer credit borrowing stood at £3,966 per UK adult. This is up from a revised £3,945 in September.

Total credit card debt in October 2017 was £69.6bn. Per household this is £2,559 – for a credit card bearing the average interest, it would take 26 years and 1 month to repay if you made only the minimum repayment each month.

- The minimum repayment in the first month would be £61 but reduces each month. If you paid £62 every month, the debt would be cleared in around 5 years and 4 months.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

Note: The Bank of England altered the treatment of some secured credit series in May 2015, so figures here might not be directly comparable to historical Money Statistics figures

Mortgage debt

Outstanding mortgage lending stood at £1.357 trillion at the end of October.

- This is up from £1.315 trillion a year earlier.

That means that the estimated average outstanding mortgage for the 11.1m households with mortgage debt was £122,235 in October.

The average mortgage interest rate was 2.5% at the end of October. Based on this, households with mortgages would pay an average of £3,056 in mortgage interest over the year.

For new loans, the average mortgage interest rate was 1.92%. Using the latest figures from the Council of Mortgage Lenders, this means new mortgages would attract an average of £3,181 in interest over the year.

According to UK Finance, gross mortgage lending in October totalled an estimated £23.1 billion.

- This is 12% up on October 2016, and a 0.5% increase from June 2017.

The Financial Conduct Authority reports that 64.5% of mortgage lending in Q2 2017 was for 75% or less of a property's value.

- 4.35% of lending was for mortgages for over 90% of a property's value.

There were 40,488 loans approved for house purchase in October 2017, according UK Finance, 3% lower than October 2016. The average loan approved for house purchase rose to £187,400.

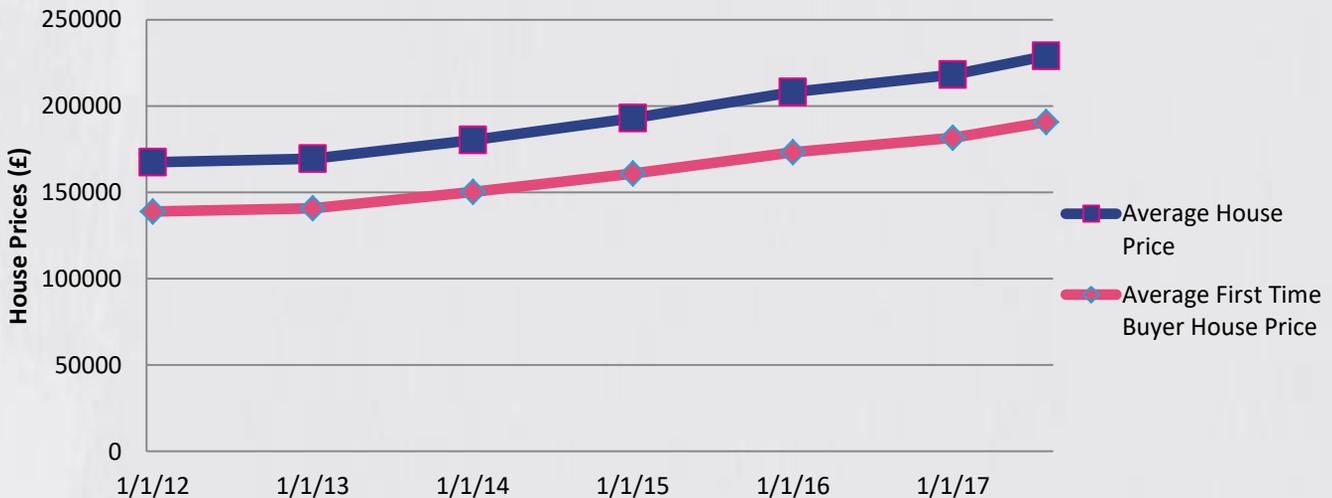

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

House prices

Nationwide estimate that house prices rose by 0.1% during November 2017, up 2.5% on 12 months ago.

UK House Prices

Data from ONS

First-time buyers

The Office of National Statistics say that the average house price for first-time buyers was £190,679 in September 2017, which is an annual increase of 5.1%.

According to the Council of Mortgage Lenders (CML), the typical first-time buyer deposit in September was 17.3% (around £31,236) – 118% of an average salary.

The average first-time buyer borrowed 3.63 times their income and the average first-time buyer loan was an estimated £163,987.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

Renting

The median rent in England across all property types for the 12 months to March 2017 was £675, data from the Valuation Office Agency shows. In London this was £1,495.

For a single room, the average monthly rent was £376 – in London this was £600 (63% higher).

The average monthly rent for a two-bedroom house in England was £650 – in London this was £1,500 (131% higher).

According to the Office for National Statistics, private rental prices in Great Britain rose by 1.5% in the 12 months to October 2017.

Rental prices increased in all the English regions over the year to October 2017, with the East Midlands seeing the biggest increase (2.9%) and the North East seeing the lowest rise (0.2%).

Figures from DCLG show that in 2015/16, private renter households spent an average of £797 a month on rental payments, while owner-occupiers with mortgages paid £689 in mortgage payments.

- These figures are the mean payments, so can be skewed by very high figures.

Inclusive of all benefits, private renters spent an average of 35% of their income on rental payments. Owner-occupiers spent on average 18%. Weekly rents in the social housing sector were £106 for housing association renters and £95 for local authority renters.

34% of households owned their home outright, while 29% were mortgagors. 20% rent privately, and 17% pay a social rent.

- 2012/13 was the first year ever there outright owners where the largest tenure group.
- The rate of private renting is the highest it has been since the 1960s.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

Arrears and repossessions

According to the Financial Conduct Authority, at the end of Q2 2017 there were 200,772 mortgage loan accounts with arrears of more than 1.5% of the current loan balance.

- This is largely unchanged on the previous quarter.

61.87% of payments due for loans in arrears were received in Q2 2017.

The Council of Mortgage Lenders reports that 88,300 (0.8%) of mortgages had arrears equivalent to at least 2.5% of the outstanding mortgage balance in Q3, a small quarterly fall (from 90,400 in Q2). Since the end of Q3 2016, this figure has dropped by 6 a day.

The Council of Mortgage Lenders estimates that 1,900 properties were taken into possession in Q3.

This equates to 21 properties being repossessed every day, or one property being repossessed every one hour, 9 minutes.

Every day in Q3 2017, 52 mortgage possession claims were issued and 37 mortgage possession orders were made.

371 landlord possession claims were issued and 275 landlord possession orders were made every day.

4. Savings and pensions

Savings

In Q2 2017, households saved an average of 5.9% of their post-tax income, including benefits, in Q2 2016 this was down from 7.5%.

The average interest rate for an instant access savings account – not including bonus interest payments – was 0.09% in October. For a cash ISA, this was 0.27%.

If someone on the average salary saved 5.9% of their income in an average instant access savings account for a year, they would receive £1.13 in interest after tax. If they saved it in an average cash ISA, they would receive £4.23.

It would take 21 years for someone on the average salary, saving the average amount per household every year in an average instant access savings account, to afford the average first-time buyer deposit. If they saved into a cash ISA at the same rate it would take 20 years.

Around 9.45m (35%) households have no savings, while a further 2.97m (11%) have under £1,500. 68% have less than £10,000 in savings.
