2. Personal debt in the UK

Total UK personal debt

People in the UK owed £1.566 trillion at the end of November 2017. This is up from £1.512 trillion at the end of November 2016 – an extra £1,040.96 per UK adult.

The average total debt per household – including mortgages – was £57,578 in November. The revised figure for October was £57,424.

Per adult in the UK that's an average debt of £30,253 in October – around 113.8% of average earnings. This is up from a revised £30,172 a month earlier.

Based on November 2017 trends, the UK's total interest repayments on personal debt over a 12 month period would have been £49,949 billion.

- That's an average of £137 million per day.
- This means that households in the UK would have paid an average of £1,836 in annual interest repayments. Per person that's £965 – 3.63% of average earnings.

According to the Office for Budget Responsibility's November 2017 forecast, household debt is predicted to reach £2.296 trillion in Q1 2022. This makes the average household debt £84,412 (assuming that the number of households in the UK remained the same between now and then).

Consumer credit debt

Outstanding consumer credit lending was £205.8 billion at the end of November 2017.

- This is up from £192.19 billion at the end of November 2016, and is an increase of £259.24 for every adult in the UK.

Per household, that's an average consumer credit debt of £7,565 in November, up from a revised £7,541 in October – and £493.38 extra per household over the year.

It also means the average consumer credit borrowing stood at £3,975 per UK adult. This is up from a revised £3,962 in October.

Total credit card debt in November 2017 was £70bn. Per household this is £2,574 – for a credit card bearing the average interest, it would take 26 years and 3 months to repay if you made only the minimum repayment each month.

- The minimum repayment in the first month would be £62 but reduces each month. If you paid £62 every month, the debt would be cleared in around 5 years and 4 months.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

Note: The Bank of England altered the treatment of some secured credit series in May 2015, so figures here might not be directly comparable to historical Money Statistics figures

Mortgage debt

Outstanding mortgage lending stood at £1.36 trillion at the end of November.

- This is up from £1.32 trillion a year earlier.

That means that the estimated average outstanding mortgage for the 11.1m households with mortgage debt was £122,554 in November.

The average mortgage interest rate was 2.5% at the end of November. Based on this, households with mortgages would pay an average of £3,064 in mortgage interest over the year.

For new loans, the average mortgage interest rate was 2%. Using the latest figures from the Council of Mortgage Lenders, this means new mortgages would attract an average of £3,280 in interest over the year.

According to UK Finance, gross mortgage lending in November totalled an estimated £23.1 billion.

- This is 8.5% up on November 2016, and a 0.03% increase from July 2017.

The Financial Conduct Authority reports that 60.2% of mortgage lending in Q2 2017 was for 75% or less of a property's value.

- 4.61% of lending was for mortgages for over 90% of a property's value.

There were 39,507 loans approved for house purchase in November 2017, according UK Finance, 5% lower than November 2016. The average loan approved for house purchase rose to £190,500.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

House prices

Nationwide estimate that house prices rose by 0.6% during December 2017, up 2.6% on 12 months ago.

Halifax said that average house prices rose by £1,387 in December 2017. This is a fall of 0.6% on last month; prices rose by 1.3% over the quarter and rose by 2.7% over the year.

UK House Prices

Data from ONS

First-time buyers

The Office of National Statistics say that the average house price for first-time buyers was £188,173 in October 2017, which is an annual increase of 4.2% and a monthly decrease of 0.7%.

According to the Council of Mortgage Lenders (CML), the typical first-time buyer deposit in September was 17.2% (around £29,062) – 109% of an average salary.

The average first-time buyer borrowed 3.60 times their income and the average first-time buyer loan was an estimated £160,883.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

Renting

The median rent in England across all property types for the 12 months to September 2017 was £675, data from the Valuation Office Agency shows. In London this was £1,433.

For a single room, the average monthly rent was £377 – in London this was £600 (63% higher).

The average monthly rent for a two-bedroom house in England was £650 – in London this was £1,473 (127% higher).

According to the Office for National Statistics, private rental prices in Great Britain rose by 1.4% in the 12 months to November 2017, down from 1.5% the month before.

Rental prices increased in all the English regions over the year to November 2017, excluding the North East which remains the same. The East Midlands saw the biggest increase (2.7%), with only the West Midlands increasing on last month by 0.1%.

Figures from DCLG show that in 2015/16, private renter households spent an average of £797 a month on rental payments, while owner-occupiers with mortgages paid £689 in mortgage payments.

- These figures are the mean payments, so can be skewed by very high figures.

Inclusive of all benefits, private renters spent an average of 35% of their income on rental payments. Owner-occupiers spent on average 18%. Weekly rents in the social housing sector were £106 for housing association renters and £95 for local authority renters.

34% of households owned their home outright, while 29% were mortgagors. 20% rent privately, and 17% pay a social rent.

- 2012/13 was the first year ever outright owners were the largest tenure group.
- The rate of private renting is the highest it has been since the 1960s.

3. Mortgages, rent, and housing

Arrears and repossessions

According to the Financial Conduct Authority, at the end of Q3 2017 there were 194,243 mortgage loan accounts with arrears of more than 1.5% of the current loan balance.

- This is a slight dip on the previous quarter.

57.99% of payments due for loans in arrears were received in Q3 2017.

The Council of Mortgage Lenders reports that 88,300 (0.8%) of mortgages had arrears equivalent to at least 2.5% of the outstanding mortgage balance in Q3, a small quarterly fall (from 90,400 in Q2). Since the end of Q3 2016, this figure has dropped by 6 a day.

The Council of Mortgage Lenders estimates that 1,900 properties were taken into possession in Q3.

This equates to 21 properties being repossessed every day, or one property being repossessed every one hour, 9 minutes.

Every day in Q3 2017, 52 mortgage possession claims were issued and 37 mortgage possession orders were made.

371 landlord possession claims were issued and 275 landlord possession orders were made every day.

4. Savings and pensions

Savings

In Q3 2017, households saved an average of 5.5% of their post-tax income, including benefits. This was down from 7.2% in Q3 2016.

The average interest rate for an instant access savings account – not including bonus interest payments – was 0.19% in December. For a cash ISA, this was 0.33%.

If someone on the average salary saved 5.5% of their income in an average instant access savings account for a year, they would receive £2.22 in interest after tax. If they saved it in an average cash ISA, they would receive £4.83.

It would take 21 years for someone on the average salary, saving the average amount per household every year in an average instant access savings account, to afford the average first-time buyer deposit. If they saved into a cash ISA at the same rate it would also take 21 years.

Around 9.45m (35%) households have no savings, while a further 2.97m (11%) have under £1,500. 68% have less than £10,000 in savings.

Pensions

The Pensions Regulator estimates that at least 9.187 million employees had joined a pension scheme under auto-enrolment by the end of December 2017.

According to the Family Resources Survey, 43% of adults actively participated in a pension in 2015/16, up 1% on the previous year. This was 62% for employees, and 17% for the self-employed.

The Annual Survey of Hours and Earnings reports that 59.2% of employees were receiving an employer contribution to their pension.

28% of employees were in a Defined Benefit scheme in 2012, according to the Office for National Statistics. In 2008/10, the average value of a Defined Contribution pot was £29,000.
